Dear Parents:

As you prepare for your child's reception of the Sacrament of Baptism and entrance into the Catholic faith, we welcome you. Baptism is the first Sacramental step in your child's life and should be entered into with careful consideration, thought and commitment to raise your child in the Catholic faith.

Enclosed is our Parish Baptism Information Form

Baptismal Requirements:

- Date request – Submit form three to four weeks in advance.
- Copy of Child's Birth Certificate.
- Live within the Parish boundaries of Rodeo and Hercules.
 - Not a resident of Rodeo or Hercules – A letter of permission from the Parish nearest to you is required.
- Godparent Certification form – enclosed. Must be signed and sealed by your home parish.
- Submit all requirements together in person.
- Indicate on the form, available dates and times to meet with the Priest at the Parish Office.
- Baptismal Offering: $100.00 – give the envelope to the priest on the day of Baptism.
- Day of Baptism – 11:00am (10:45am be at the Church).

In choosing the Godparents:

- Two names will be recorded on the certificate and book of baptismal record (you may have other godparents, but only two are required).
- One Male (godfather) and One Female (godmother).
- Practicing Catholic – received the Sacraments: Baptism, Eucharist (Holy Communion), Confirmation.
- Non-Catholic godparent will only be a witness to the baptism.

The day of your child's Baptism is a very important occasion, as it marks the beginning of your child's journey in our Catholic faith. It is also an important day in your lives, as parents, as you are promising to raise and teach your child about our Catholic faith. The godparents are also assuming an important role of support and good example in the Catholic faith.

God has blessed you with the gift of new life. We hope the Rite of Baptism will be a very meaningful celebration of faith for you and your family.

Baptism is a sacred moment. Please do not spoil the moment by running around taking photos. Please wait until the end of the Baptism. You are welcome to take as many pictures after the Rite of Baptism concludes.

Sincerely,

Father Larry Young
Pastor
