A Message from our Pastor

Dear People of St. Patrick Parish,

The first reading today from the Acts of the Apostles says, “The community of believers was of one heart and mind.” It is my prayer, that the same statement can be made of the people of St. Patrick Parish, Rodeo-Hercules. Yes, that was God’s intent when He sent Jesus, to form us all as one Faith.

God was good in that, so many of you came to Easter Mass, standing inside and even outside the Church building, so many families praying as families must have touched the loving Father and Son.

Thanks to so many, the Church is both beautiful and prayerful and many hands and voices made that happen.

My joy was seeing so many receiving Holy Communion and experiencing the Risen Christ.

Today, we also remember the loving Divine Mercy of God, to all His people that He created and has had to forgive and show mercy and will continue to do so.

It is also my prayer today, that we the people of St. Patrick Parish will follow the example of those first Christians and do our part to raise the money in the Annual Bishop’s Ministries Appeal for 2024 of $3 Million Dollars for the needs of the Diocese of Oakland.

In 2023, our parish raised $46,778.00 reaching 110.44% of our total Parish goal of $42,400.00. We can do it again and we all need to say yes, to do our part.

Lest I forget to mention when the Parish reaches its goal of $42,400.00, everything over that figure comes back to the individual parish for their needs.

God Bless,

Fr. Larry Young
Your Pastor

Life at St. Patrick Parish

EASTER CHURCH DECORATION - This Easter Season, we look at the Easter Lilies, the Baptismal water, the Picture of the Risen Lord and remind ourselves of God's love for us and remember He does want us to also experience all those things one day in heaven. Thank you, Parish Art and Environment members and our Parish Altar Society for making us have this beautiful, prayerful place to encounter God.

SACRAMENTS - April 18th, St. Patrick Parish will have Bishop Barber Confirm our Youth who have been preparing. May 11th, the Parish will experience First Holy Communion for our children. What a blessing for all of us.

RICE BOWL - Don't forget to return your Rice Bowls, so we can send the funds to the needy around the world.

EASTER SEASON - Let us remember that the church year celebrates Easter all the way to Pentecost Sunday, May 19th. What a wonderful time to pray and let God bless each of us and the work of the Church around the world.

ST. PATRICK SCHOOL - St. Patrick Catholic School and Infant center will return to school on Monday and we have missed all our students, but know you enjoyed the Holy Easter break.
