A Message from our Pastor

Dear People of St. Patrick Parish,

Our Responsorial Psalm, “ Lord, let your face shine on us. ”

When we are living the way God wants us to live and looking toward heaven, we should feel the love of God for us and see how proud God is of us. As we receive the Seven Sacraments, we should feel the face of God shining upon us.

When we repent from our sins and seek God’s forgiveness, we should feel the shining face of God being thankful and proud of us.

When God listens to us praising one another and encouraging one another in Parish life and family life, we should feel His smile and pride toward us.

When we joyfully contribute to the work of the Church and its needs to help people come to know God and be willing to follow Him, His love makes Him love us even more. For example, contribute to the Bishop’s Ministries Appeal 2024, Be the Light, Mrs. St. Patrick Fund Raiser, etc.

The other picture is when we sin, do we see God weeping over us and fearful that we will not seek His forgiveness and change our lives in time to reach eternal joy and happiness in Heaven.

The second reading today, tells us God wants us to keep His Commandments. We need to reflect on these words. “Those who say, “I know him,” but do not keep his commandments are liars, and the truth is not in them. But whoever keeps his word, the love of God is truly perfected in him.”

Here at St. Patrick Church as we see the sunlight pouring into the Church, let us think and believe that God’s face is shining on us all, and He goes with us especially as we leave the Church taking the Body and Blood of Jesus with us to spread joy to all we meet.

God Bless,

Fr. Larry Young
Your Pastor

Life at St. Patrick Parish

SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION - Bishop Barber will administer the Sacrament of Confirmation here at St. Patrick Church on Thursday, April 18th. There are 37 young people being confirmed after a strong two-year preparation, along with several adults. Please pray for those to be confirmed that they truly understand and trust in the gift of the Holy Spirit that they are about to receive. We also thank their Confirmation Sponsors and family members who have walked this journey with them.

TAX DAY - We also pray as we remember April 15th is National Income Tax Day and we hope and pray for a refund and not an increase. By the way, a refund could help toward our gift to the Bishop's Appeal.

EASTER ORCHIDS - We are thankful to Priscilla Abaya, Tess Villavicencio, Priscilla Felaire and Alice and Noni Lara, for lending orchids to the Parish for our Easter Environment. These really made the Church look great.

BIBLE CLASS - Sunday Scriptures Study led by Fr. Larry every Monday at 8:15-9:15am and repeated Tuesday, 7:30-8:30pm. This class studies the readings used at the next weekend readings. This helps us better understand the readings at Mass. All are welcome and the class is free.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD - The Parish is so pleased with the children attending the Children's Liturgy of the Word during the 9:30 and 11:30am Sunday Masses. We are proud of our Youth Ministry leaders who are helping to teach them.

3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

He said to them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the law of Moses and in the prophets and psalms must be fulfilled ... You are witnesses of these things." - Lk 24:44, 48
