A Message from our Pastor

Dear People of St. Patrick Parish,

Next Sunday, we will celebrate Pentecost Sunday, the coming of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles and in a very special way upon all of us until the second coming of Christ whenever that may be.

This Sunday, we remember Jesus ascending into heaven from this earth.

Jesus came, taught, worked miracles, formed the Catholic Church and placed the Apostles to carry on His work until He would come again.

Many in the world at that time did not accept Him and His teachings and even put Him to death on a cross and had Him buried. There are still those who today do not believe in Him and are trying to undo everything He did for all people.

Well, Jesus rose from the dead, on Easter Sunday and for 40 days appeared in His risen form to His Apostles and others who could testify that He had truly risen from the dead.

So today, we remember when Jesus ascended back into Heaven to take His place at the Right Hand of the Father, where He forgives our sins and prays for all people.

As a Baptized Christian, I believe and accept the testimony that the Apostles and others saw, as He was raised and that gives me hope that one day, He will come back to earth and raise our mortal bodies and reunite my body to my soul that hopefully will be in Heaven, awaiting reunion with my body.

Today, we thank Jesus for loving us praying for us, forgiving our sins and awaiting our full reunion with Him in Heaven.

Today, we also thank God for all the many blessings to St. Patrick Parish from our recent Harvest of Hope and we thank everyone who helped to make it happen.

God Bless,
Fr. Larry Young
Your Pastor

A close-up photograph of two hands, one holding a crucifix, with the text 'THE LORD IS KING.' overlaid in large orange letters. The hands are weathered and the lighting is warm, creating a spiritual and intimate atmosphere. The background is blurred, showing a blue garment and a brown fabric.

THE LORD IS KING.
