A Message from our Pastor

Dear People of St. Patrick Parish,

The Responsorial Psalm 66 today is, “ Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.”

Do we pray it and mean it in our daily lives? Let us reflect on the reasons we cry out to God with joy.

- That there is a loving God.
- He gave us life.
- His Son Jesus died for us to take away our sins, so we can one day be body and soul with our loving God in heaven.
- Our Baptism makes us truly God’s children no matter our age.
- Our names are written in heaven.

The meaning of the word JOY: an emotion evoked by well-being that brings delight to us.

Today, we also reflect upon Jesus’ words to His Apostles and Disciples and ask ourselves, do we do it in our daily lives.

- Into whatever house you enter, first say, “Peace to this household.”
- “The Kingdom of God is at hand for you.”

Shared Thoughts:

- Arriving home after a hard day and horrible traffic conditions, enter the house and say, “Peace with this house and all who live here.”
- Smile more and show that you do feed God’s love for you, which might make others say we want that same joy and peace.
- Try to be more positive rather than negative in our conversations.
- Pray for those people we don’t like, so that maybe they will change and find peace.

In this Jubilee Year 2025, let us be filled with hope and when we find the peace and joy, let us not forget to thank God for giving it to us.

God Bless,
Fr. Larry Young
Your Pastor

Life at St. Patrick Parish

Parish Maintenance - Why do we need a monthly collection for Regular Parish Maintenance? On June 26, 2025, all the electrical system in the Church died. No lights, sounds etc. The Parish had to pay $3,500.00 for a new main breaker, that is just the cost of the breaker, not including the installation fee. Total $3,638.00.

Bishop's Appeal - When can we expect that St. Patrick Parish will reach its goal for the 2025 Bishop's Ministries Appeal and that each of us we'll have done our part. Take a look at the poster in the entrance to the Church. Let's get it done.

Parish Diocesan Assessment - On June 30th, we paid the Parish Diocesan Assessment for the second quarter, $20,263.25, so far, we have paid $40,526.50 and have two more quarter to go $81,053.00 is the total for 2025.

Deanery 7 - On Saturday, August 2, 2025, at St. Joseph Parish, Pinole, Deanery 7, which is the Deanery that we belong, will celebrate a Special Mass at 10:00am. Bishop Barber will celebrate the Mass along with our Deanery Priests. We want you to attend this Mass praying for our Jubilee Year 2025 as Pilgrims of Hope. It would be great if we all wear the Jubilee T-Shirt, only $15.00 each. It can be ordered at the table outside after Mass here.

Thank You - A very special thank you to Fr. Jun Manalo for planning the 85th Birthday of our Pastor, Fr. Larry Young and all the effort, so many put into this wonderful celebration of Fr. Larry's life. Thank you to everyone for your prayers, love, support and gifts and it was very special to Fr. Larry. He thanks all of you and hopes you will keep praying for him.

Pre-order your Jubilee T-shirt, check it out after each Masses.
Sample sizes from Small to 2XL.
Price is $15.00 each.
